Her modelling career will be taking her to New York and Milan soon. She hopes to embark on presenting or acting in the future.

Kim said:

'When I was asked to do the Alpha cinema ad I was delighted. I loved doing the ad and I hope it reaches as many young people as it possibly can and that people will come on Alpha as a result. It's a wonderful course.'

'Many young people need direction in their lives today and I believe that the Alpha course can really help them.'
